Teacher Note:

Daily Message

- Display the big book, Cathy Cook and track the words as you read th title. Explain that we will learn about the yummy food Cathy likes to cook.

1. Say the sentence, Good Morning, Cathy Cook. Invite children to say it with you as you tap your knees for each word. Ask, How many words did we say? Repeat, encouraging children to tap their knees once for each word.

2. Introduce Mr. Pencil. Share, We use Mr. Pencil to help us know where to start writing the next word in a sentence. Write the sentence, one word at a time, inviting the class to help you recall the words from the sentence.

   Encourage the class to count the number of words in the sentence. Ask, Is this the same number of words we tapped?

3. Share the upper and lowercase letter cards for C, c. Trace the letters on the card and ask children to draw a c on the rug and make a c with their hand. Invite volunteers to make a C with their bodies. Ask a letter helper to circle the letter c in the sentence.

4. Recall some names in the class that have the letter C or c in the name. Use the name cards for a visual cue.

Read Aloud

- Read the Cathy Cook big book using the digital version (or by playing the CD). Invite children to verbally recall the food they heard and saw in the book. Provide C vocabulary cards as a visual cue.
